September Meeting
Monday 25th

Jean Howie Drive,
Morningside
at 7.45 pm

The night will be a Pipers' Night

From the Editor:

.This month's newsletter contains a bit of a "catch-up" on contest results but there are still more that we haven't reported! A few more will appear next month, along with some first hand accounts following our attendance at some of the major contests in Scotland – haven't recovered from the jet lag in time to write them for this month!.

The annual meeting last month saw the "main" positions still filled by the people who held them before, but we welcome Lance Carey and Matthew Supranowicz as our two new vice-presidents. The minutes of the meeting are in this newsletter and at the end of the newsletter are the president's report and the financial statements.

Subscriptions are now due and there is a slip at the end of the newsletter for you to use when paying. Any members in arrears will also receive a "special message" in the near future.

Don't forget that our October meeting will again be held jointly with the Celtic Celebration Committee and will feature the contest to select Queensland pipers to go into the Australasian Final for the Festival Interceltique de Lorient.

Thanks are especially due to Glenys O'Malley and Maurie De Hayr for filling in the gaps while we were overseas.

AUGUST 2006 MEETING

Having concluded the Annual Meeting we looked to the essence of the Society, that is 'PIPING'

Vic MacKay commenced the evening playing his composition "Professor Ian Fraser" which he had played at a large function to honour the professor for his work in finding cancer cures.

Next we heard Ian Hustwick who played a mixed selection with tunes such as Highland Laddie; Who Dares Wins; 74th's Farewell to Edinburgh; Pump the Thump?; Battle of Waterloo ;Boys of the Loch prominent among them.

Donald Galloway played his father's composition The Misty Island to open his selection of The Rose of Allendale; MacPherson's Lament; The Battle of Killiecrankie; The Rowan Tree; The Glasgow City Pipers; finishing with 2 fine 6/8's The 10th HLI crossing the Rhine and Miss Ishabel MacDonald.

Donald was followed by Maurie DeHayr who after some warm up 4/4s to get the fingers going gave us Teribus; Liberton Pipe Band Polka; a MSR of Miss Elspeth Campbell, Lady Loudon & Alex C. Macgregor followed by Tricia's Song and a H&J - Jack Aloft and The Rakes of Kildare.

Matthew Supranowicz then gave a short account of his trip to Lorient and then proceeded to give us some fine music with (as he writes) The Gardens of Skye etc. Bruce Gandy's Farewell to the Iron Horse; Angus MacKinnon; Blue Bonnets over the Border; a MSR – The Clan MacColl, The Shepherds crook. The Grey Bob; finishing with the H&J Tam Bain's Lum and The Old Wife of the Mill Dust.

John Mulheran, who had been brought along by Sandy Campbell was next to play, his tunes including Donald MacLean of Lewis; Mrs Lily Christie; The Mist Covered Mountains; The Cameron Quickstep. His MSR was The Edinburgh City Police Pipe Band, The Piper's Bonnet & Sandy Cameron and he concluded his selection with Samantha's Lullaby; The Judges Dilema & The Seagull.

The final player was Rob Grogan who played a selection comprising When the Piper Plays; Hector the Hero; Mull of Kintyre; Cockney Jocks & The Crusaders March.

It was now time to draw the raffle which on this occasion was won by Maurie DeHayr (finally) – Then off to supper and a wee chance to mix and chat with other members before going home with thoughts of our next meeting on 25th September.

Piobaireachd Club

The September meeting again suffered from members away overseas and some of our younger players busy preparing for exams; however not daunted we pressed onwards and were rewarded with a very fruitful morning.

The program commenced with Iain Bruce playing The Parading of the MacDonalds; followed by Matthew Supranowicz giving us The Glen is Mine. we then heard Yasu Hamilton playing The MacGregors' Salute. Next to play was John Mulheran (fresh from Scotland) his tune being The Lament for Donald of Laggan.

It was now time for the featured tune – with Roy Gunn taking us through Chisholm's Salute (a refresher course) with the tune then being played played by Iain Bruce.

The session continued with The Lament for the Earl of Antrim played by Roy Gunn followed by John Mulheran with The MacLeod's Controversy and concluded with Matthew Supranowicz playing Lady Doyle's Salute

Following some discussion it was decided to shorten the next meeting (1st.October)with all arriving by 9.45 so that a prompt start at 10.00 can be made.

Lorient 2006 – the 'Year of Australia'

President's Annual Report

Good evening ladies and gentlemen. Twelve months ago when I accepted this position I was concerned about the prospect of an ex-drummer becoming the president of this Society. However because of the efforts of long standing Members of the Society through the establishment of annual contests I was able to muddle through. I especially wish to thank Maurie De Hayr for his assistance this past year.

Our meeting nights have been well attended and I thank you the members for your support and Desley and Alex McConnell for their preparation before and after the meetings and the printing and distribution of the newsletter.

The People's Choice knockout competition was very well received and hopefully this will become a regular event on our calendar.

I would like to thank all those pipers who have entertained us so willingly over the past twelve months. A special mention must be made of the younger pipers and their parents for making the effort to support the competitions. Having said that we must not forget our senior members who have added to the variety we experience on a monthly basis. For without all of them we would not be here this evening.

It would also be remiss of me if I did not thank the various adjudicators who have given of their time to judge the competitions. Their task is not one that I envy one little bit especially in situations where there are several of their peers present. Thank you judges.

Members, it has been a pleasure to have served as your President and I wish the incoming President all the best for the coming year
