August Meeting

Piobaireachd Night

Monday 28 August

7.00pm

Brisbane Boys College Band Room, Moggill Road, Toowong

Come along and play a Piobaireachd, or just a Ground if you like. A good chance to prepare for solo contest coming up. Other tunes can be played of course but the emphasis is Piobaireachd

Admission: $10 non members, $5 members

In Scotland the Band Contest Season has now finished with the World Championships.

Congratulations to the Australian players and bands who participated and special congratulations to Inveraray and District and Stuart Liddell as Stuart has visited this Society several times now.

Many solo contest results from Scotland inside this newsletter as well, with the big ones of Oban and Inverness now just on the doorstep. Interesting to see new names emerging in the prize lists.

In Queensland we have three solo contests in a row now, at Scots PGC Warwick, BBC and Ipswich which have formed up into a "mini-season". Best of luck to all who venture into these contests.

The three remaining Society events for the year are also special ones, with the International Recital in September, the Julie Appleton-Seymour contest in October and the Jack McCandlish trophy in November.

Next year the Australian Pipe Band Championhips are on in Brisbane at BBC on 7 April. Keep up to date on what is planned at the contest website

July Meeting

Our July meeting featured as usual the Annual Jimmy Durham Memorial Trophy competition for junior players. With about 40 people present, including 13 competitors, Andrew Roach introduced our judges for the night - Tom McGirr and Nick Tomkins and the contest began.

The players and their tunes were as follows:

Liam O'Shea - Men of Argyll
 Patrick Roach - Prince Charles' Welcome to Lochaber
 Junsung Oh - P/M William Gray's Farewell to the Glasgow Police
 Fergus MacDonnell - Prince Charles' Welcome to Lochaber
 Bradley Bloom - Donald Maclean's Farewell to Oban
 Aidan Scott - Knightswood Ceilidh
 Henry Hulbert - Hugh Kennedy
 Matthew Ruttley - The Clan McColl
 Abbas Manchadi - Glengarry Gathering
 Liam Docherty - Donald Maclean's Farewell to Oban
 Hamish Burnie - Muir of Ord
 Zali Rogers - Atholl and Breadalbane Gathering
 David Granzin - Prince Charles' Welcome to Lochaber

While the judges considered the result Alex McConnell spoke about Val Dodd who had died in the past week. Val was very active in the Society in the 1970s and 1980s and served for several years as Secretary.

Fearghas Russell who had won the contest in 2016 then played a short selection comprising Duncan McInnes, The Clan McColl and P/M John Barclay.

The judges now having reached their decision, they were thanked with applause and the results were announced, with prizes being presented by Jimmy Durham's daughter, Gloria Smythe. The results were:

1st Abbas Manchadi
 2nd Zali Rogers
 3rd Aidan Scott
 4th Matt Ruttley
 5th Patrick Roach

In winding up the meeting Andrew Roach mentioned the upcoming solo contests at Warwick, BBC and Ipswich.

Once again a big thank you to BBC and the Pipe Band supporters group for the venue and the food and drink service.

The Judges

QHPS Piobaireachd Group

Rochedale State High School, Priestdale Road

The August meeting of the group was one of those days you shudder to think about; with Ross away overseas, illness and busy piping events all happening our attendance was very poor, but we managed a morning of music and interesting discussion of presentation of the tunes.

Bruce MacLeod stepped to the fore and after tuning his pipe he played Struan Robertson's Salute. His presentation of the tune quite well done.

Cabar Feidh Gu Brah a tune composed by Donald McLeod to mark the amalgamation of the Seafortths with the Camerons is a favourite of David Mariner and this performance by him was well delivered and received.

After a "stretched" morning tea David again played some light music to settle his pipe and played a tune written by Donald McPhee and dedicated to P.M Richard Parkes (Field Marshall Montgomery) naturally its titled Salute to P.M. Richard Parkes MBE. An interesting tune and enjoyable.

The session was concluded with further discussion of "modern tunes" and their appeal to present players.

Our Next meeting is set for SUNDAY 10th. SEPTEMBER so not to clash with "Fathers' Day".
