Pipers Night

Admission: $5

A very brief Newsletter this month. All the usual features will be back next month.

It's been a pretty hectic time the last couple of months with the Australian Pipe Band Championships and our own International Piping Recital the night before. Your scribe wasn't able to be there but by all accounts it was a great night with many people in attendance.

Unfortunately the plans for the Patron's Trophy to be held in May didn't come to pass and we have deferred it until later in the year, so we will just be having a normal Pipers Night this month (see above).

On a sadder note, May MacLean, widow of Hugh and a long time attender at Society meetings died recently. The Society was well represented at her funeral.

The piping scene will go a bit quiet for a while with many departing for Scotland. We wish the Brisbane Boys College Pipe Band, the Scots PGC Warwick Pipe Band and Murrumba Pipes and Drums successful trips to Scotland.

The Ipswich Cup Solos are scheduled for Saturday 8 September in Queens Park Ipswich. More details are to follow.
