The Newsletter is back! Apologies for last month's absence, caused by the flu which many seemed to have had - your scribe was laid low for at least four weeks as were many others. We have held over some of the contest results to next month and edited some others to keep the newsletter page count down this time.

We have reports on both the July and August gatherings inside, along with the August Piobaireachd Group report, which was ready to go into the newsletter that didn't happen.

Note that the date of the Appleton-Seymour Contest will change due to a clash. The most likely new date is 9 November, but not confirmed yet

Two of our younger members have recently received Pipe Bands Australia awards: Rebecca Capon has won the Peter Cook Memorial Scholarship and Matthew Rutley has been highly commended for the same award. Both of these carry cash rewards. Our congratulations to them.

Do you have pipes you want to sell?

We regularly get requests from people looking for a good instrument, especially an older one. If you have one that is surplus to requirements, just email us on qhps@qhps.org or ring 07 3397 4512 with the details and we will see if we can put you in contact with a potential buyer. We can also advertise them in the newsletter (free for members).

July Gathering

Our July meeting featured jig playing.

Unfortunately your scribe was laid low by the flu for several weeks and was unable to be at the meeting. However, Hazel Osborne was the judge for the evening and has supplied her notes from which I have extracted the following:

There were 10 competitors (and Andrew Roach appears to have played as well, but not as part of the competition). They were:

Jim Cordell
Owen Sulistio
Oliver Cordell
Aidan Scott
Derek Bellamy
Rebecca Capon
Charlie MacKenzie
Tom Hulbert
Abbas Manchadi
Laurie Nicol

Hazel reports that there were a number of very well executed and planned jig medleys. Going through her notes, it seems some may have needed to have paid more attention to consistent rhythm. Also, even in jig playing, it is important to have the pipe going well!

The placings were as follows:

1st Abbas Manchadi
2nd Derek Bellamy
3rd Charlie MacKenzie
4th Aidan Scott

August Gathering

Our August meeting featured the playing of Piobaireachd and we attracted ten players of all levels of experience, which was an excellent result. We had an apology from Donald and Elizabeth Galloway away in the USA.

The players and their tunes where I managed to catch them were as follows. Most played a ground and a variation or two but the last four at least played full tunes:

Fearghas Russell
Ben Cordell (with a bad cold) - The Wee Spree
Abbas Manchadi - Tulloch Ard
Aidan Scott - The Captain's Lament
Jim Cordell - The Captain's Lament

Aodhan Trusselle - Lament for Donald of Laggan

Charlie MacKenzie - Macintosh's Lament

Laurence Nicol - Macgregor's' Salute

Dave Marriner - Lament for the Old Sword

Ross Campbell - Corrienessan's Lament - a tune by Ian Dall Mackay, not to be confused with the much more frequently heard Corrienessan's Salute

Mark McKenzie - MacCrimmon's Sweetheart

The meeting concluded with a reminder about the Jimmy Durham Memorial contest next month and the Piobaireachd Recital Day in November

We are working towards our annual recital day that is scheduled for the 3rd of November at Rochedale High School. The list of participants is nearing completion, so if any of you like the idea of taking part, you had better contact Ross Campbell pretty soon to be sure of a place.
